

Imagine!

July
2018

Imagine no television, no radio and no newspapers: no news! Would you be a lot happier? The news seems to be predominantly bad news, “bad news sells newspapers, good news does not”. So we experience a constant drip, drip, drip of bad news and that can so easily lead to a sense of depression, especially if you have little to distract you, perhaps because you are house bound, or you have a stressful situation to face in your own lives.

So if you cut out all the media you have cut out much of the bad news. What are you left with? A barren place, an arid desert!

We Christians are not called upon to hide away from the world, to become something like ostriches with our heads in the sand. There is a place for quiet retreats; but for most of us such retreats are opportunities to recharge our batteries, ready for our engagement with the world we live in. Christ in the garden of Gethsemane came to terms with his Father’s will, submitted to it and went out to face his betrayer.

His story of courage, determination, trust and love is a signpost for us all; his adventure of hope seemed very bleak on Good Friday, but sprung into joy and confidence on Easter Sunday. This calls us to a similar approach to life, in which we see our pilgrimage lives as an adventure of hope, a hope badly needed by the world out there. We are called to be the salt and light for our community, infusing our world with Christ’s values of forgiveness, love and hope.

May the words of Kate Wilkinson’s hymn (Hymns and Psalms 739) be our prayer:

*May the mind of Christ my Saviour live in me from day to day,
By his love and power controlling all I do or say.*

BAPTISM

It was lovely to see the church packed to capacity for the recent baptism of Blake Parker, Sue's first grandson.

Parents John and Claire were joined by nearly 90 friends and family plus 15 church members to share this special day.

The congregation joined in the dramatised version of Mark 4 verses 35 - 41 which told of Jesus calming the storm. During the address, Roy invited everyone to make a boat from a sheet of coloured paper, whilst thinking about all the hopes and fears we have for our own lives, our families and especially for Blake.

Many thanks go to: Roy for such a welcoming service; Alan W, Alan D, Mike and Peter for moving so many chairs to and from the hall; Fran and Willy who helped set up the church; Judy and Mike for the photographs; and Marion who maximised the seating space and designed the order of service.
